Susan Reichle

President and CEO, International Youth Foundation

Susan Reichle is president and CEO of the International Youth Foundation, a global non-profit dedicated to equipping and inspiring young people everywhere to transform their lives. As CEO, Reichle has overseen the revitalization of IYF's mission, vision, and values; guided the development and implementation of a new, strategic plan, Transformation 2025; led the design of IYF's pivotal Gender Equity and Social Inclusion (GESI) policy; and championed practices of organizational transparency and data-driven accountability. She serves on numerous boards and steering committees for organizations including the Eurasia Foundation, Solutions for Youth Employment (S4YE), and the Alliance for International Youth Development.

Rob Schuwerk

Executive Director of North America, Carbon Tracker

Rob Schuwerk is the executive director of Carbon Tracker's North American office. He leads Carbon Tracker's outreach and data provision to the Climate Action 100+ Initiative, as well as its work with securities market regulators and accounting standard setters around the globe, as they aim to bring greater transparency to climate-related financial risk. He has authored several papers on how climate-related risks are likely to impact financial reporting and the role that securities markets regulators can play. He has also produced analysis of company disclosures both before and after the creation of the Task Force on Climate-Related Financial Disclosures' recommendation.
